ENTRANCE RESTRICTION

In order to keep in step with rapid growth in other lines, Ursinus has not slighted an important question—who shall be allowed to enter the College? When high standards of scholarship are set forth as a compelling motive in the administration of any institution of higher education, it is essential for that institution to limit by definite restrictions those who make application for admission. All applicants should be treated on the same basis of fairness but there are students who either do not have the preparation or the ability to continue their studies at Ursinus and these students should not be permitted to enter.

In pursuance of such a policy, the faculty has recently made a distinctive step forward by setting forth entrance limitations which will affect both types of students who apply for admission. The first of these divisions, a class which includes the majority of entrants, consists of those who present records from first grade high schools. By the faculty action students of the upper two thirds of their respective graduating classes only may be accepted on their certification. Those who fall in the lower third may enter, but on condition that they successfully undergo examinations in all subjects in which their grades are below eighty-five.

There is yet another class of entrants which may or may not be desirable in the college. This group is comprised of persons who transfer from other colleges. Individuals, many of whom are welcome, may present various reasons for their action, but unfortunately a rather appalling percentage of transferring students is made up of "college tramps."

Ursinus has no place for these wandering collegians and the faculty makes plain its attitude toward this class. Applicants will be admitted to advanced standing upon the basis of three limitations: 1. Each applicant must show a "C" average in work pursued in his former college—2. He may have no failures charged against him in any subject—3. He must give satisfactory evidence that he has not been dismissed for any disciplinary reason.

If rigidly adhered to, these rulings will greatly advance the standing of Ursinus, for in the last two years of growth, it has been evident that more discrimination must be shown in choosing those who may be permitted to enter. Furthermore this is not a complete action in itself, but merely a step in the improvement of the scholastic standing.

It is to be hoped that the faculty, at some not far distant point in the future, will see fit to restrict admission so as to accept only the upper third of a graduating class on certification. In the meantime many friends of the college will applaud this movement as a progressive step and commend the faculty for making it.—H. H. A. '30.

ON YOUR WORK

Just three days of grace, and then exams. It doesn't seem possible, but it is true that another college year is nearly at an end. There are various signs of it upon the campus, but the most outstanding evidence is that the final examination period draws nigh. This period of the year always inspires mingled feelings of joy to those who perhaps feel that they are one year nearer to their ultimate goal, and disappointment to those who are unable to make the grade and are caught in the whirlpool of failure. There are various things which enter into the formation of a college career. Much depends upon the individual, for it is said that no course was ever so difficult that a man with an honest effort could not somehow get through, but the honest and persistent effort is always essential.

The whole matter of examinations is often compared to that of a race. Runners step up to the mark. Who will win? As they stand there the average spectator cannot say. And yet the race is decided even before the men step on the mark. Natural ability and careful and faithful training make one man the victor. The famous Olympic trainer and coach of many intercollegiate champions, Mike Murphy, once stated that the races in May are won by the training in March and April. So it is with examinations. The student must needs train himself, and work consistently and conscientiously the whole year round.

To those who will be engaged in the encounter within the next few days we wish the best of luck.—M. E. B. '29.

Y. W. C. A.

The regular Y. W. meeting was held Wednesday evening in the Library. Miss Jane Kohler, President, was in charge. As it was Senior night, she summed up in a few appropriate words what college must mean to those about to graduate, emphasizing particularly the value of a true college friendship.

Devotions were led by Aurelia English. Dorothy Berger and Elizabeth Cornwell entertained with a vocal duet. A pleasing solo was also rendered by Ruth Von Steuben.

The girls track meet displayed one talent which some of our co-eds possess.

They can run like a stocking.

At this time of the year college students are fitting examples of Shakespeare's plays and can be classed as follows:

Freshmen—"The Tempest."
Sophomores—"Much Ado About Nothing."

Juniors—"As You Like It."
Seniors—"All's Well That Ends Well."

We imagine the smallest volume in the world is Who's Who in Italy.

STAY ON THE FAIRWAY; STICK TO CAMELS!

SOMEWHERE between your collar-button and the bottom of your plus-fours there's a smoke-spot—seeking "fill-fullment." The vast majority of jobbies who feel that in'ard hankerin' have discovered what to do about it. They pull a cool cloud of joy away down into it—and slowly exhale fragrant Camel smoke.

Tobacco science has produced in Camel a superb blend of the choicest Turkish and Domestic tobaccos. Just revel once in the delicious, quivering aroma of a cloud of Camel smoke. We'll bet a caddie to a left-handed niblick you'll never get off that fairway!

The Tower Window

RE you read this the invitations to the fifty-eighth annual commencement will have been broadcast in the mails. I wish to reinforce the little printed missive with all the urgency I can command. Each commencement season as it comes around brings a series of academic events that are in themselves worth attending. The program for this year has been set up with the usual care and every exercise should be of great popular interest.

The celebration of the eightieth anniversary of the founding of Freeland Seminary will bring to the campus on Saturday afternoon a small but much respected group—the surviving former students of that worthy institution. It is fifty-nine years since Freeland Seminary was incorporated with Ursinus College. The boys whose school days antedate that are not likely to come back and paint the town red, but their presence here and the ceremonies incident to their reunion will add to the interest and promote the happiness of the occasion.

The graduates of Ursinus in the years from 1907 to 1912 will have the pleasure of greeting their president, Dr. A. Edwin Keigwin, and again hearing him speak. He will be here from Saturday evening until the end of the ceremonies on Monday and will preach the baccalaureate sermon on Sunday morning.

The several alumni and affiliated organizations will meet as usual. The new dining room will relieve the congestion experienced in recent years in the holding of these meetings. There will be ample room for dinners, business luncheons, etc. The Woman's club and the Alumni Athletic Club will find the appointments much improved.

At the Alumni Banquet one of the speakers will represent the days of sixty years ago, another of forty and the third of ten while the toastmaster will be a representation of twenty years ago. But all are actively concerned in the present and future of Ursinus and their speeches will doubtless be of practical as well as of historical interest.

A special word to our ministerial alumni. Some of you live at too great a distance to return to your home churches for Sunday appointments. You will want to be here on Saturday for the alumni events and you will want to attend the commencement exercises on Monday morning. Please note that our Baccalaureate Sunday is a day that will be worth more to your congregations to have you attend these exercises at the college than to have you conduct services at home. The fresh inspiration which the commencement will give you will enable you to do all the better work on your return. Will you not pass this idea to your official board and have them arrange for your attendance. Furthermore, the churches have a vital interest in Ursinus College and as important policies for the institution are projected at commencement time, pastors should be present.

No doubt still better reasons than those here mentioned will impel you to come. There will be many old friends here to greet you and the working force on the grounds and in our buildings, the faculty, officers of administration, and members of the Board of Directors—all alike will be happy to see you.

OLEVIAN GIRLS AT DINNER

Mrs. Mae E. Rauch was entertained at dinner by the Olevian girls Wednesday night, May 23 in the Freeland Hall private dining room.

The table was beautifully decorated with flowers. Each guest received a corsage of sweet peas as a favor.

Thanks to Mrs. Webb and her capable staff, the occasion was made doubly delightful by the delicious food which was served.

ENGLISH CLUB HELD LAST MEETING AT OLEVIAN HALL

The last meeting of the English Club took place Monday evening at Olevian Hall. There were no papers but the subject, travel and adventure, was very ably discussed by Dr. Smith who told of some of his own travelling experiences. The evening closed with the drawing for books, and the serving of delicious refreshments. The club was pleased to have as its guests, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Rauch.

DR. PRICE ENTERTAINS

Dr. John B. Price, college physician, entertained the doctors of Norristown at a dinner at the Jefferson Inn on Saturday evening. About thirty of his fellow physicians enjoyed his hospitality and heard addresses by the Hon. Joseph Buffington, Judge of the United States Circuit Court and President George L. Omwake, of Ursinus College, who were Dr. Price's especially invited guests.

ANY way you figure it, P.A. is better tobacco. Take fragrance, for instance. Your well-known olfactory organ will tell you. And taste—who can describe that? And mildness—you couldn't ask for anything milder.

Yes, Sir, P.A. is cool and comfortable and mellow and mild. Long-burning, with a good clean ash. You never tire of P.A. It's always the same old friendly smoke. Get yourself a tidy red tin and check everything I'm telling you!

ALUMNI-VARSITY GAME

TO BRING BACK OLD GRADS

for the Alumni last year, and the Varsity could not see his fast ball. Jing will be on hand most likely, to Captain the Alumni Team. Johnson's name will live forever in the Hall of Fame at Ursinus as he shut Fordham out without a hit, and no man reached first base. In 17 innings he struck out 29 batters against Gettysburg, and in his last year he beat Villa Nova twice in handy fashion. Last year with the Athletics he turned in several low hit games, and many of his friends believe that he would be invincible were he to employ his spitter in the Majors, as this delivery was his most valuable asset. Great things are expected of Jing by Connie Mack ere the season ends.

Babe Adams will come on from Pittsburgh to take part in the game, and Jack Mitterling once with the Athletics will patrol right field. Dr. Butler, from Naugatuck, Conn., also a graduate of Georgetown, will represent New England in this classic. Les Rutledge is coming on from Indiana to play center field, while Jimmy Kennedy, the Old North East High School Star of Phila. is expected.

Efforts are being made to secure the services of Earl Pottenger, former All American Halfback, last year Coach of the World's Champion New York Football Giants, and at present Manager of the Wilkes-Barre Baseball Club in the New York-Penn League. Potty played in the International League 5 years, and was in both the National and American Leagues, as well as many minor leagues and independent clubs. His big bat would be a vital factor for the Alumni.

"Smokey" Derk, who defeated the University of Pennsylvania a few years ago with his masterly pitching, will share the hurling assignment with Jing Johnson, as Jing will not likely be permitted to work more than a few innings. Ralph Stugart of New Jersey or Mugsy Bowman of Kutztown Normal are expected to share the receiving assignment with Charley Will, one of the greatest throwing catchers in the history of Ursinus. Paul Isenberg, All American Fullback on the 1920 team, will take part in the game. Peter Peterson will come down from Mansfield. Johnny Knipe from Denver, Colorado and Miles Austerberry of Detroit are expected to play in the in-field, while Sterl Light of Boston will be used in the out-field. Dana Griffen, former Conway Hall Star, is expected.

Other players of prominence are Miles Miller, Clyde Moser, Chas. Shellenberger, premier slab artist, Roy Hefren, Pope Gregory, Frank Hunter, Bob Miller, Percy Mathiau, Fatty Ziegler, D. Grove, "Cy" Boyer, Captain of the 1914 team, which won 19 and lost only 4 and beat Pennsylvania Military College 25 to 0.

"Ty" Helffrich will manage the Alumni Team, and all players are urged to promptly communicate with him, and signify their intention of being on hand for the contest. Players should be on the field at 9 A. M. daylight saving time in full uniform.

Head-waiter Poff, master of ceremonies, then called upon several of the fellows to say a few words. The gist of their speeches was that the dining force is the most important body on the campus, and with them everybody agreed. Mr. Sheeder was then called upon. In his speech he presented some interesting facts about its aims and purposes, and of the advantages that a student gathers in working his way through school. He emphasized how important in the struggle for success is the willingness to do any sort of task that arises, no matter how humble it may be.

Before leaving the fellows expressed their appreciation for the dinner by giving three hearty cheers for Mrs. Webb, three for Mrs. Rauch, and three for Bill the cook.

BANQUET SERVED TO VARSITY TRACK MEN

The past track season was summarized at a banquet served to the letter men Wednesday evening, May 23, in the upper dining room. Those present were Kermit Black, Merritt Jeffers, Charles Keller, Albert Lackman, Austin Gavin, Arthur Ohl, Earl Tomlinson, Thomas Swanger, Charles Metcalf, Richard Newcomer and Coach Veatch.

Richard Newcomer was awarded the Athletic Council Medal for achieving 17 points in the Interclass Track meet. The occasion was concluded by the unanimous election of Richard Newcomer as captain for the second consecutive year, and Hunsicker, Alexander and Sassie as Sophomore managers.

Dr. John A. Sawhill, former professor of Greek, was a week-end visitor on our campus. Prof. Sawhill is now at State Teacher's College, Harrisonburg, Va.

The following alumni were visitors on the campus over the weekend and attended the Sophomore-Senior Dance on Saturday, May 26; Betty Smith, '27; Mickey Johnson, '27; Clare Blum, '27; Robert Farley '22; Adline Thomas Farley, '27; Grace Kauffman, '27; Sherman Eger, '25; Roscoe Peters, '27; Eugene Rausch, '27; Edna Coles, ex '30; Morton Oppenheimer, '27.

Dave Danetz Ex '30 visited his friends upon the campus during the past week. Dave is now studying at Temple Dental School.

ON OTHER CAMPUSES

U. S Presidents, College Men

While only 1 per cent. of American men have been college graduates, that 1 per cent. furnished 55 per cent. of the Presidents, 54 per cent. of the Vice Presidents, 36 per cent. of the Congressmen, and three out of every five men listed in "Who's Who," the Christian Science Monitor states.

Produces 65 College Presidents

The number of active college and university presidents in this country who are graduates of Boston University was brought to forty-two when the election of Philip D. Deshner, '15, to the presidency of the Blinn Memorial College in Benham, Tex., was announced, the Public Ledger stated recently. Deshner is now the sixty-fifth living B. U. Graduate who has been at some time a college president.

Yale Has 18-Story Library

Are welding instead of riveting will be used to join together the 15 miles of steel columns which will go into the Sterling Memorial Library, which is being built at Yale University at a cost of over $7,000,000. The eighteen-story book tower will be the largest of its kind when finished, and will provide stacks for over four million books. Beside eliminating the cost of the rivets and of drilling the girders, the welded joints provide a stronger joint, as the steel is not weakened by a number of rivet holes.
